CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Evening of Applause selection committee is seeking nominations for the Nipissing District Human Rights Hall of Fame, in honour of the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (IDERD).

Racial and ethnic discrimination occur everyday, destroying lives and fracturing communities. The committee is looking for nominees with shown leadership in eliminating racial discrimination in all its forms and manifestations, in order to promote understanding between races and to build communities free from all forms of racial segregation and racial discrimination. Who do you know that challenges racial discrimination locally, nationally or internationally? (see the UN's International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination) who will you nominate?
